MISSIT - Recently, as a result of some unfortunate bees, I felt behind on my work. Realizing that I needed to get caught up quickly, I decided to employ a time-management technique recommended by efficiency experts everywhere: I went to the horse races.
I went with a veteran journalist, Dick Evans, one of the select few people in newspaper history ever to have simultaneously held the positions of Bowling Writer and Religion Editor. Needless to say, he was known as the Duke to those pointstakingly trained and, above all, blunderingly stupid horses are going to do. And you just never know.

I used to work at a newspaper called The Daily Local News where the professional handicapper, a man named Francis Wood, once picked a horse to win - I think it was the Pick of the Day
- only this horse threw its rider, leaped the fence, ran into the decorative infield lake, got stuck in the sand and drowned. The Pick of the Day!
